

The DISA Professional Development Team Members from various reputed schools of Dhaka City are taking initiatives for the first time to organize and conduct free workshops for DISA school teachers on demanding educational strategies and issues around the local and the global contexts. A maximum of 10 teachers from each DISA school can participate in this event. Each participating teacher from DISA schools can register themselves in google docs for any two of the workshops offered by placing their names, email address and organization's name. Seats for each workshop are limited to 15-20 participants. Certificates of participation will be provided to all participants. Hope you all have an enjoyable and a collaborative learning experience!

WORKSHOP TOPIC: MOTIVATION THROUGH INDIVIDUAL STUDY PLANS

FACILITATOR: William Westgate, Principal at Regent College

WORKSHOP AIM: Many students lack motivation and the ability to organize their time and their studies. This workshop will focus on how individual study plans addresses those issues, and how educators can use this tool to inspire and motivate their students on a daily basis.

WORKSHOP TOPIC: STRATEGIES FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING

FACILITATOR: Farhana Bari, Deputy Head of Primary and PYP Coordinator, International School Dhaka

WORKSHOP AIM: Participants will be introduced to a variety of practical teaching strategies that will assist in facilitating differentiated learning in their classrooms.

WORKSHOP TOPIC: MAKE THE MOST OF PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

FACILITATOR: Farah Ahmed, Senior Vice Principal, Head of Mirpur Campus, Scholastica

WORKSHOP AIM: This is an opportunity to form a positive and strong relationship with parents. Make the most out of these meetings by learning about your students' interest and strengths. Learn the things you can do to help your students' succeed both inside and outside the classrooms. Share your expectations and goals. State your concerns and discuss the challenges on a positive note. Be prepared to conduct successful meetings!

WORKSHOP TOPIC: CLASSROOM STRATEGIES FOR MATH LEARNING

FACILITATOR: Helen Salmon, Grade V Homeroom Teacher, International School Dhaka

WORKSHOP AIM: The aim of this workshop is to provide participants with the skills, knowledge and ideas needed to successfully address the teaching and learning of mathematics within the context of their educational settings.

WORKSHOP TOPIC: ASSESSMENT TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

FACILITATOR: Syeda Sadia Ferhat, Professional Development Teacher (PDT), The Aga Khan School, Dhaka

WORKSHOP AIM: The workshop will foster teachers to identify and use a variety of assessment strategies and technological assessment tools to measure students' knowledge and skills in different subject areas. Put a halt to traditional ways of assessing children's learning and adopt interesting and interactive technological tools and strategies to make assessment of learning fun-filled and effective for learners and for yourself!

WORKSHOP TOPIC: HOW TO TEACH BANGLA IN CREATIVE WAYS

FACILITATOR: Nazneen F. Rahman, Principal, Curriculum Development Unit, Scholastica

WORKSHOP AIM: The workshop would be of a great benefit for the participants in developing a congenial learning atmosphere for a child which is both interactive and supportive in acquiring a good knowledge of Bangla through various mediums and teaching methods. This will encourage a child to develop a sense of enjoyment, build confidence as well as curiosity of mind to explore and learn things independently.
